

2004 Renewal Target Grant Awards

Center of Protective Environment	Our Children are Watching "Our Children Are Watching" addresses the silent epidemic of young children affected by domestic violence. This awareness and	Kay Gomolak	Alamogordo cope@netmdc.com	$50,000
Gathering Place	Shima Yazhi Home Health Visiting Program The Shima Yazhi (Little Mothers) program is a free home-visiting program that provides prenatal, post-partum and parenting	Inez Brock	Thoreau jennmuskett@hotmail.com	$60,000
Gerard's House	A Safe Place for Grieving Children Gerard's House offers emotional support to children who lives have been shaken by the death of a loved one. If these children	Lisa Krooth, Esq.	Santa Fe lisakrooth@aol.com	$30,000
Hidalgo Medical Services	Develop service model To collaborate with community agencies and services to provide early access to family support services, prevention and	Donna Flenniken	Lordsburg dflenniken@hmsnm.org	$50,000
National Indian Youth Leadership Project	Sacred Footprints Transition Program The Sacred Footprints Transition program is designed to promote self and cultural identity and improved school performance	Kathleen Manolescu,	Gallup diseasebusters@cia-g.com	$70,000
NM Coalition Against Domestic Violence	Puppets are Life Savers (PALS) PALS is designed to encourage 8-10 APS elementary schools and 14 Bernalillo County after-school programs to work directly with	Agnes Maldonado	Albuquerqu agnesm@nmcadv.org	$50,000
PB & J Family Services, Inc.	Teletherapeutic Visits for Children of Prisoners Through the use of telehealth conferencing equipment in place in 27 NM communities and the state's nine prisons, children would	Marian Matthews	Albuquerque mmnabq@aol.com	$50,000
Presbyterian Medical Services	Dental services for Grant, Luna, Sierra, & Hidalgo PMS is requesting funding to support a new dental health outreach initiative for children 10 years and younger in the counties of	Emily Kaltenbach	Santa Fe emily_kaltenbach@pmsnet.org	$50,000
REACH 2000	Smiles for the Future This program will provide preventive dental services for 1,000 children ages 2-10 in Chaves County. In addition, 2,000 children	Lila Doyle	Roswell reach2000@dfn.com	$50,000
Saint Elizabeth Shelter	Support for 100 homeless children Through a Child Focus Worker, to provide targeted, intensive and specialized services to the children of homeless families to	Charee Lord	Santa Fe director@steshelter.org	$20,000
Service Organization for Youth, Inc.	After school program Comprehensive services will be offered through an existing after-school program. These services will include physical activity,	Ferman Ulibarri	Raton ferman@bacavalley.com	$50,000

Awarded: $530,000.00