

New Mexico Hispanic Nurses/NM Nursing Diversity Partnership Project presents

A Free lecture with 1.66 CNE contact hours

Antonia M. Villarruel, PhD, RN, FAAN

Developing Nurse Leaders & Leadership in Diverse Communities

Offered in collaboration with Con Alma Health Foundation

Monday, October 29, 2012 3:00 – 5:00 p.m.

At the Domenici Center, Room 3010 on UNM Health Sciences campus

AGENDA:

3:00-3:20 p.m.	Welcome, introductions
3:20-4:30 p.m.	Developing Your Leadership Skills
4:30-4:50 p.m.	Q&A- discussion
4:50-5:00 p.m.	Complete and submit evaluation form for Certificate for 1.66 contact hours of CNE.

Dr. Villarruel serves as the Associate Dean for Research and Global Affairs at the University of Michigan School of Nursing. She has an extensive background in health promotion and health disparities research and practice and will provide a national perspective during her presentation. Her research draws on her Latina heritage and fluency in Spanish and focuses on the development and testing of interventions to reduce HIV sexual risk among Mexican and Latino youth. Utilizing a community participatory approach, Dr. Villarruel has been the Principal Investigator and Co-Investigator of several NIH- and CDC-funded studies. She also has many leadership positions on nursing and policy boards including for the Board of Population and Public Health at Institute of Medicine, the UNM Robert Wood Johnson Center for Health Policy, and the Strategic Action Council for the RWJ/AARP Future of Nursing. Dr. Villarruel received her MSN from the University of Pennsylvania and a PhD from Wayne State University. She is Fellow in the American Academy of Nursing and an elected member of the Institute of Medicine.

Disclosures:

- Dr. Villarruel's travel expenses were paid by the Con Alma Health Foundation from a Robert Wood Johnson Foundation grant.
- Deborah Walker, MSN, RN, a content expert for this activity is the Con Alma project administration for this grant.
- Other planners had no financial or personal conflicts of interest, and therefore no resolutions was required.
- You must attend for the full two hours, submit a completed evaluation form in order to receive 1.66 contact hours.
- This activity was funded by the Con Alma Health Foundation's RWJF PIN6 grant. No commercial support was obtained.
- Objectives:
 - Describe attributes of leaders and leadership.
 - Discuss unique contribution of minority nurses in working with communities.
 - Cite three (3) ways of increasing your leadership skills.
 - Describe 1 research project and results that you'd like to replicate in your community..
 - Brainstorm health equity issues in your community and ways to address them.

Call 505-369-6368 for questions or to reserve your space at the fantastic event! To register you may also email dwalker@conalma.org. While no fee is required, space is limited and RSVPs are necessary.

This activity has been submitted to New Mexico Nurses Association CNE Accredited Approver Unit for approval to award contact hours. NMNA CNE AAU is accredited as an approver of continuing nursing education by the American Nurses Credentialing Center's Commission on Accreditation.